

The Florida Bar Continuing Legal Education Committee and the Animal Law Section present

SECOND ANNUAL Groundhog Day Seminar

SEE SPOT! SEE SPOT GO!

Navigating the Maze of Animal Law in Living, Learning, and Earning Environments

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2018 • 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Stetson University • Tampa Law Center • Tampa, FL 33602

Course classification: Intermediate • Course No. 2595

Are you confused about where animals can go in public? Do you understand the legal differences in access between service animals and emotional support animals? These and many other questions will be answered as we follow Spot, and watch Spot navigate the maze of life. From where Spot lives with his owner, attending grade school and beyond, plus having a job and even a robust social life, this fun seminar will teach attendees the important legal issues regarding non-discrimination and critical components of animal accessibility in housing, employment and public accommodations for person with disabilities. As a special bonus, gain an hour of the ever important mental health credit toward your CLE requirements while learning about how animals can control stress and improve your outlook on life.
